Introduction

An athlete is selected for the National Team if he/she meets the selection criteria, complies with the selection procedure and subscribes to the terms and conditions of the national team, including the Code of Conduct (Appendix 1).

The ambition of the Be3 is to promote multisport in its various forms. However, selection for an event does not necessarily equate to funding for the event. Each league has its own funding policy and athletes can contact their respective Technical Directors for more information.

The Be3 Selection Committee consists of:

- Technical Director of the 3VL
- Technical Director of the LF3

Athletes are responsible for the following:

- An athlete who wishes to participate in a competition from the TRI calendar must provide his/her program by e-mail to the technical director of their respective league 60 days prior to the event.
- Changes to this program must be emailed to the league technical director at least 45 days prior to the date of the event.
- Start list will be created the first Tuesday 30 days before the event. Athletes who withdraw late - meaning within the period that TRI produces the start list up to the competition day - will be charged an administration fee by the league to which the athlete is affiliated equal to the registration fee plus 250€ per late cancellation. Only if there is a valid reason for late cancellation (e.g. acute injury or illness) the 250€ fine may be waived.
- The athlete is responsible for communicating the accuracy of their race calendar at all times. Athletes may consult the status of the TRI events he/she is registered in by logging into their world triathlon account on www.triathlon.org

After this, the following procedure is followed:

- Each league's technical director is responsible for registering the athletes affiliated to their respective league on the TRI waiting list. TRI assigns a starting place according to the usual TRI regulations.
- The Be3 SC will assign available quota places to athletes achieving the specific Be3 selection criteria outlined below. Achieving the specific criteria does not guarantee a start as this will depend on the available quota places assigned to Be3 by World Triathlon and an athlete's individual ranking. An athlete on the start list should not automatically assume that he/she can effectively start.

- After a start list is produced, an athlete may always consult his/her place on the waiting list on the triathlon.org website.
- In case there are more athletes than available quota places, athletes will be given priority based on the specific Be3 selection criteria outlined below.
- In case no agreement can be found in the Be3 SC on the composition of the national team, the views of each member of the Be3 SC will be transmitted to the members of the AC Be3, which in turn will make the final decision.
- When a member of the national team is injured or ill, or wishes to withdraw, the Be3 SC reserves the right to reassess the selection in consultation with the athlete and his/her staff. To this end, the Be3 SC may request additional information from the athlete, physician, the federation doctor and/or the personal trainer. Hereby the rules of privacy and professional secrecy will be respected. The Be3 SC may decide to field another athlete in its place, but is not obliged to do so.
- The Be3 SC determines the selection in good conscience to delegate the strongest possible Belgian selection and/or achieve a specific learning goal/development objective.
- As soon as the final national selection is made, the TDs communicate this to the selected athletes.

General selection criteria:

Athletes must:

- Hold a competition license at 3VL or LF3.
- Be able to present a valid sports medical certificate (ECG & PPE) in accordance with TRI medical rules. The attestation must be delivered by e-mail to the league's technical director at least 45 days prior to the first competition.
- Be of Belgian sport nationality as provided by TRI.
- Meet the TRI eligibility criteria (athlete agreement and anti-doping regulations), as outlined on the website www.triathlon.org
- Meet the specific Be3 selection criteria.
- Be medically fit to be selected for the competitions listed below.
Be3 SC reserves the right to still not select an athlete if he/she cannot participate at his/her full potential; for example, due to illness, injury or other circumstances.

Duathlon Elite Standard Distance & Duathlon MTR 2x2

Please see the criteria World Games document on the TRI website for more information. The final selection criteria will be confirmed by the BOIC at the end of January 2025, therefore this criteria may be subject to modifications (such as using the European Duathlon Championships as the primary selection race because of a potential change in the selection deadline by the BOIC).

The Bel3 SC will fill all available quota places for both genders. Final allocation of NF quota places will be confirmed by TRI on April 30th. Priority for selection will be given as follows:

1. Highest finisher(s) at WCH duathlon 2025 within the top 12 (possibility to fill all quota places)
2. If quota places remain, athletes achieving a top 8 at the EC duathlon 2025 will have second priority.

Deadline for the shortlist of names to be submitted by the BOIC: June 30, 2025

WCH Duathlon Powermann « Long Distance » in Zofingen (SUI) September 7, 2025 (Elite)

If the athlete is vindicated by the AC Be3, the Be3 SC's decision will be reviewed and the deposit refunded. The decision of the AC may be appealed to the AC Be3 finally within five (5) working days.

Annexe 1 : Code of conduct for National Team members

The national team is represented by the selected athletes and staff. Members of the national team should behave as ambassadors for their sport, federation and their country. Therefore, anyone selected to be part of a national selection is requested to subscribe to the following code of conduct. This code of conduct is a prerequisite for being part of the national selection.

- The athlete will wear national attire as much as possible (given it has been provided in a timely and sufficient manner) and at least at the following times: briefings, podiums, competition and training, at the airport when traveling as a team, during team meals, and at press moments.
- The athlete shares the following values: fair-play, sense of responsibility, dedication, honesty, punctuality, communicative, respectful of others and safety rules.
- Discriminatory behaviour, inappropriate language, transgressive behaviour, vandalism, tobacco use, doping, alcohol abuse, drug use, bullying, sexual, verbal or physical harassment, etc., is unacceptable.
- The athlete is aware of his/her influential presence on social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.) and in communications with the press.
- The athlete agrees to and abides by the anti-doping regulations.
- The athlete participates in the talks convened by the TL.
- If the national delegation is invited to participate in a ceremony before or after the competition, the athletes and the TL will discuss participation or not in such events. Each athlete will comply with the decision of the delegation leadership.
- According to TRI rules, any athlete has the right to file a complaint against an (alleged) irregularity in the competition from an official, staff or athlete. If that alleged irregularity would have been committed by an athlete who is also a member of their own national selection, the complainant will first consult with the TL about the appropriateness of the complaint.
- If any athlete feels harassed or uncomfortable in any situation, he or she may report the case to the World Triathlon Welfare Officers at safesport@triathlon.org and consult the website for more information on the safeguarding and anti-harassment policy.
- The athlete is subject to the rules and codes of TRI available on the TRI website triathlon.org during TRI events.

Sanctions:

Violations against this code of conduct will be dealt with in the first instance by the technical director of the league concerned. Minor violations may result in suspension from participation in training sessions, internships, test days or competitions. Repeated minor violations or major violations will be reported to the disciplinary committee of the league concerned (League Internal Regulations).
